

Assistant Judge Advocate General
for Military Law and Operations
(IMA)
U.S. Army
Brigadier General
E. Scott Castle

Currently the Assistant Judge Advocate General for Military Law and Operations (IMA), Office of The Judge Advocate General, BG Scott Castle began his military career in 1971 as an enlistee assigned to the U.S. Army, Europe in Heidelberg, Germany. After graduating with high honors from the College of William and Mary and receiving his law degree from the University of Virginia, BG Castle returned to active duty in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, serving as an Appellate Defense Attorney, U.S. Army Legal Services Agency; Post Judge Advocate, Fort Greely, Alaska; Chief of Military Justice, Fort Shafter, Hawaii; and Administrative Law Attorney, Office of The Judge Advocate General, Washington, DC.

BG Castle's service in the U.S. Army Reserve includes assignments as Deputy Staff Judge Advocate and Staff Judge Advocate, 300th Area Support Group, Fort Lee, Virginia; Chief of Administrative Law, 310th TAACOM, Fort Belvoir, Virginia; Commander, 154th Legal Support Organization; and Commander, 10th Legal Support Organization.

BG Castle is a graduate of the Command and General Staff College; The Judge Advocate General's School, where he received an LL.M. in Military Law; and the U.S. Army War College, where he received an M.A. in Strategic Studies. His awards include the Meritorious Service Medal with Silver and Bronze Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster, and the Army Achievement Medal.

In his civilian capacity, BG Castle is the Deputy General Counsel (Fiscal), Department of Defense Office of General Counsel. BG Castle served as the General Counsel, Coalition Provisional Authority, Baghdad, Iraq, from May 2003 to July 2004. He has twice received the Decoration for Exceptional Civilian Service.